Relation: Friend

I have known Al for many years thru his dealings with my late husband Mike & my son Aaron when Mike owned Kootenay Sleds, we'd often have a coffee & a conversation at the store. I hadn't seen Al for sometime but he was a wonderful man, he will certainly be missed. My deepest sympathies go out to you all..... Sandra Seminoff

Tribute from Lisa Snell

Relation: sister-in-law

My beautiful sister - I am so sorry I am not physically there with you. My heart is there and I can feel your pain. I also know that Al is with you too...and although he will not be able to take care of you as he has in the past, he will guide you. He loved you deeply and that love will stay with you. We will never forget our visits to Nelson with Al organizing the beach time, hikes and trying very hard to get us moving in the early morning. Early to bed, early to rise.....I'm going to try to do that more often. Al...you might not have realized it, but you taught us a lot, most importantly that we all have to find our own happiness. xo
