Tribute from Andy Chong

Relation: friend

Hi Bill,

I am trying to compose myself to believe what has happened. It felt so sudden and fast for me and I can probably speak for the rest of our family.

I am so sorry and please accept my condolences to you and your family. Toni is very well loved by me and my family and we will missed her lots just like I missed my mom. My heart goes out to you and your family. Remember that she is in a much nicer place with no more pain in her body. Thats how I saw it with my mom and it put me more at ease.

It is nice to see the little scarf that Toni made for my son(Brayden) when he was born. We still have it and will keep it for along time to come.

We love you very much Bill, be strong, and if you ever need anything, please call

Andy

Tribute from Hansa Bhagwan

Relation: Through work

Hi Bill,

I just wanted to let you know how sorry I was to hear about Toni's sudden passing away. I know how much you loved each other; it was obvious whenever you were together.

Toni was a wonderful person to know, gentle and caring. Having worked with her for about a couple of years, I admired her knowledge about public companies and her contributions to the success of Data Fortress Technologies Ltd. Toni was a well-read person and had a great love for art and literature. I have fond memories of her and I will miss her dearly. My thoughts are with you at this difficult time.

With warmest regards,
Hansa

Tribute from Michael & Debby Chong

Relation: Friends

Toni a loving, caring and warm person that was taken too early from all those that loved her. She was always there with her warm smile and loving hugs at all of the Chong family's milestones - wedding, business ventures, birth of our son, funeral of my Mother. The love and friendship that Toni and Bill shared was remarkable and they were an inspiration to many married couples. She will be greatly missed and admired by our family.

Tribute from Jennifer Kaleta

Relation: I am her daughter

My dad hooked up with Toni when I was 5yrs old ~ my earliest memory of her is a cloud of sweet-smelling hair & soft kisses. She was the only one to move ashtrays away from my face when the adults were chain-smoking... she would also sneak us into bars before they opened, so we could crank the music, wake up the disco ball & dance like EVERYONE was watching.

this pic is from the last time Mary {her mother} visited Vancouver, many moons ago... the happiness in Toni's face melts my heart.

Tribute from Anand

Relation: Friend

Dear Bill:

Sad to hear the news from you. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this very difficult times.

Bill, Toni will be missed by all of us and it is a big loss. I am at a loss for words to even explain my feelings.

I will always remember the many occasions at DF where she was a great support in dealing with many issues by adding her valuable opinions and inputs to solve tough problems. Her starting to work for the marketing company post DF, gave her a lot of job satisfaction and things were going per liking. After a couple years you and Toni moved to Nelson and I am not current with your day to day happeningsand I apologise.

Only hoping that things were doing fine and all are ok but all of a sudden out of the blue I get this message which was the most unexpected.

I sincerely wish I had kept current with Toni and yourself so I knew a bit more.....only thinking that we all could have met on a happier occasion. Anyways, once again our prayers are always there....

Truly,

Anand

Tribute from Melany Mjolsness

Relation: friend and neighbour

I remember 1st seeing Bill and Tony, when they moved here from Van a few years ago, sitting out on their front stoop smoking and enjoying the Kootenay scenery. I thought what a handsome couple they made and how obviously in love they were, wondered if they had just met, as they never seemed to grow tired of each others company, often in happy animated conversation. It took me a few months to officially meet them and was immediately put at ease by their easy repoire and warmth. As they lived across the street from me we had many occassions to chat and I grew to sense Tonys elegant strength, Spirit and wit . She was quick to offer support and advice from her storehouse of knowledge.

I was shocked to have had her passover so quickly , one day I was offering her some of my herbal remedies for pain in her tummy, then she was in the hospital with cancer! I offer up my deepest heartfelt compassion for her family and close friends, having known her only a short time I can see what they have lost. Yet...only her physical presence is gone, her Spirit is still with us. She is free now, free of pain and all the annoying fears and struggles of this Earthly realm. So I feel her being, especially when I stop to talk to Bill, she is here sitting next to you Bill.

Tribute from Henry Binder

Relation: Family friend

My sympathy, Bill and Jenny, for your sudden loss of Toni, whom you loved so dearly. I remember Toni effortlessly using humour to convey her special perspective; she created indelible images with the fewest of words. I had only glimpses of Toni's intimate acquaintance with matters of the heart, which you, Bill and Jenny, got the full benefit of in her many expressions of love. Toni will also be remembered for clearly seeing what had to be done, be it at work or for love and family, and for acting on her convictions fully, without hesitation. I hope both of you will find solace in knowing how Toni would have wanted you to endure, and find your way at this difficult time.

Tribute from Les Winkler

Relation: friend

I knew Toni in Medicine Hat during the 70s-80s. I knew her thru Bill Wiggins and Theresa Wiebe. We hung out together, shared drinks and went to parties. I remember Toni going on tour with David Patterson and Teresa Wiebe in their band. I remember her laugh, the fun times we had together then. She was an amazing person, she made friends easily and her great personality made being around her great. I thought of all the memories I had with Toni and the most I remember is her laugh. She had a great laugh. I will miss her.

Condolences to Bill (who I also remember) and her daughter.

She was a good person whom I will never forget

Tribute from Genifer Valerie Brown

Relation: sister

My dear sister Toni, such a lovely old soul, with a deep rich laugh,and wise beyond her years. She used her heart when dealing with people whether it be with family, friends, co-workers, or clients. Her sharp mind was always going, but it was her kind heart that all will remember. Toni - if you have the opportunity to ring my chimes in the back yard - ring them loud! I love you Toni, always have, and always will. You were the greatest little sister Toni, and having you as my friend was one of the most precious gifts that life could ever send.
