Tribute from Susan Potter

Relation: former student, friend

Dear Families of Barb, it is with much sadness I read of your Mom's passing. My heart hurts for all who knew and loved her, for she was truly a beautiful soul. I first met your Mom, when I moved to Fairview and attended Hume school, I was eight. Throughout my years there, your Mom was a Godsend to me, she helped me in so many ways, that it would take years to recount. Your Mom was my only light in the tunnel, so to speak, when I was at Hume. Years later, my own children would come to love your Mom with as much love as I had experienced with her. I thank your Mom for being an amazing woman and inspiration to so many children and adults. Barb will be missed terribly by me and my children, and I'm sure, everyone who had the pleasure to know her! Hugs and prayers to you all.

I was brought up on Third Street also and would see her going past the house and she was always so nice. I also babysat her children and both Barb and Sil were so nice. Barb is at peace now. Condolences to her family.

Condolences to Barb's family. Barbara was a wonderful woman. I worked at SD #7 and knew for years. Always a hello and sweet smile in the city. I was surprised to learn that my sister went to high school and graduated with her about class of 1954/55. May she Rest In Peace.

It's with great sadness we learned of barbs passing growing up with Brad, Jane and Viv was so much fun and being welcomed into your loving home by your mom made those days extra special. We're glad that our sons had Barb to guide them through Hume School. All the kids benefited by having grandma Barb to help them get through there days at school. Our thought are with you all.
