Tribute from Lois A. Lawrence

Relation: Community Member

Bartel was so kind to us when our son died. That is when I learned of his caring nature. People in our community really appreciated Bartel.

Tribute from Helen Sebelius

Bart was such a good person, and i will miss his smiles and our visits.

Tribute from Leah Nelson

Relation: He was a dear friend

Heartfelt condolences to Bartel's family. He was a big part of our lives for many years, as he was a dear friend of our mom's. Dear soul, rest in peace!

Love and Light,

Leah Kettlewell (Nelson)

Tribute from Vicky Swanson

Relation: good friend

Even though I left the valley many years ago, Bartel was someone I thought of often. I considered him a brother. He was there when I needed him and so kind to so many. We had a lot of laughs. A special soul.

Tribute from Jay Jenkins

Relation: friend

i worked for Bartell for many years.He was a good friend and we just visited with him last summer.Very much missed

Tribute from Aaron Durana

Relation: Friend

I knew Bartel most of my life - as far back as when he was with Judith Ceroli, who my folks were also friends with. lots of rumoli parties and dinners (Bartel was a cook). He loved Sashimi and Greek food - pat of the Valley gang that we grew up with, it now feels like one less person in world :P R.I.P. dear fellow - you were ill for so long.

Tribute from Seanna Cameron

Relation: customer and friend

Bartel "fronted" us a roof for our log house and let us pay it off.We didn't ask.He just told my husband, while he was building Bart's deck, (with Richard) that we needed a roof and he ordered one for us. I know we are not the only people Bartel helped in this manner. He sure did a lot for the people of this Valley.I admired him very much. xo

Tribute from Louise Hird Myre

Relation: Friend

I met Bart when he first came to the Valley in the early 70's. I have the greatest respect for him & I am honoured to have known him as a good friend. Condolences to his family & friends.
