Peace and blessings to all who read this, as our thoughts turn to Bryce...

Tribute from Karen Mansfield

Dear Julie - thinking of you lots - & want you to know how sorry I am. My memory of Bryce is many years ago when he played Santa for our Appledale Day Care Breakfast with Santa - what a kind & loving man - he will be missed by many..Love, Karen Mansfield

Tribute from Stacy & Bill

We feel so privileged to have known Bryce and to have called him our friend. We only knew him during his dance with cancer and he's left a lasting impression on us. Funny, intelligent, helpful and resourceful are just some of the words to describe how we new him. A strong man, gone too soon. Rest well friend.

Tribute from Bob Herring and Linda Out

Relation: Friends of 20 years

We met Bryce, and his wonderful wife Julie-Ann, through other friends and knew him to be a warm, inclusive, inquisitive, fun-loving and well-grounded individual. We feel blessed to have known him for the time we did and have many fond memories of times spent together at gatherings, meals, parties, canoe days and more. In our memories and our beings, live on Bryce.
