What joy you have brought to our lives. Sharing your knowledge of birds on beautiful strolls at our reunions in Oregon. Sharing your love of God, of family, & of nature. We feel blessed to have our time at Cove with you and Karen sharing a cup of coffee on a beautiful morning. Prayers that the love you gave us all wraps around your beautiful family in a hug as they miss you so much. We will never forget the wonderful person you were.

Tribute from Pat Eastman

Relation: Friend of family in Nyssa, Oregon USA

God's peace to all of Dirk's friends and family.

Dirk's family and my family were very close in business and at St Paul's Episcopal Church in Nyssa Oregon. Dirk was my older brother Mike's best friend when they were growing up in Nyssa. I remember lots of "Dirk" stories in association with my brother and they are as fond now as when I first heard them. The "mumbeldy peg" game in the front yard of Dirk's home and Grant finding him pulling up the peg with his front teeth and Grant demanding an answer. Brother Mike's dining with Dirk's family and catching a spoon across the back of the hand when he reached across the table in front of Grant for a slice of bread. Brother Mike was not held to such good manors as not reaching across the table at our home. Grant was a good teacher. I remember more and they are held with high regard in my heart.

Pat Eastman, Albany, Oregon.

Tribute from Jane Leeming

Relation: Hospice

Dear Karen and Family,

I was very sorry to learn about Dirk in the paper this week. He will be missed! Dirk sat on the Nelson & District Hospice board for many years. He was a kind and gentle man and was a great asset to our board. I remember meeting you once Karen, for a Hospice potluck dinner at your lovely home in Kaslo. You're in my thoughts at this difficult time.

Hi Karen & family - I was just checking something out on the Sorrento Centre site & came across the info on Dirk. Always sad to lose someone as special as your loved ones, but it is probably great to know that he has gone to be with the Lord. Nice having known you all.

Mari and I send our sympathies to the family with thanksgiving for Dirks life. It was a pleasure serving with him in Eastern Oregon.
