Tribute from Mathilde Klassen

Relation: acquaintance

Dear Colleen, I am very sorry to hear of Mickey's passing. What a loss that will be! This will be a difficult passage for you but God's love will see you through. I sincerely sympathize with you. I know you and Mickey mostly through church connections. The last time I saw Mickey was at Mass at Lakeview Village. You were not with him that time. We were seated not far from each other and we shared a warm sign of peace. I think he knew who I was. He was that time as always dressed so very well and was very much his usual gentleman. You must have been very proud of him. I am praying for you and the family, Warmly, Mathilde
