

REMEMBERING
Fredric Critchlow

January 26, 1946 - September 21, 2011

Fred was born January 26, 1946 in Burns, Oregon. He was the youngest of 4 children of Howard and Etta Mae Critchlow. The family sold their cattle ranch and moved to Horsefly, British Columbia in 1955. Fred spent his youth in the outdoors, prospecting and trapping. He met and married his wife, Janice Branch, in 1965. They had four children (Wade, Deedee, Laurie and Kathy). They moved to Prince George Where he owned a large logging company. In 1986 they moved to the Kootenays for better opportunities for the family. Fred logged with his son Wade and continued to prospect. He moved to Kaslo in 2005 where he focused on his life long passion of prospecting. Fred was predeceased by his father Howard and his brother Clifford. He is survived by his mother, Etta Mae Critchlow, brother Clyde (Joan), sister Alice (Art), wife Jan, children Wade (Sharon), Deedee (Owen), Laurie, and Kathy. His many grandchildren, Jake and Ryder Fred's hobbies were hunting, fishing, watching his grandchildren play hockey and following his favorite hockey team- The Vancouver Canucks. Fred was loved and respected by all who knew him. He will be greatly missed.

