Tribute from Jeannine Moreau Gouveia

Relation: Family Friend

Mr. Trainor and my father, Leo Moreau were great friends. Our families had a combined total of 14 children! When my father died, Mr. Trainor stepped into the role of a secondary father that very afternoon. He made sure we six kids had a continuing father figure in our lives. Camping, fishing, he included us. Both Mr. and Mrs. Trainor were such a presence in our lives, as kids and as adults. He was a man who used few words, he didn't have to, he was a prankster and had such an infectious laugh! To know Mr. Trainor and to be a part of his life was what made our childhood fun and enjoyable. Mr. Trainor, I'll miss you so very much. Thank you.

Tribute from Mimi Sturgeon

Condolences to Evelyn and family,

Dear Evelyn,

I have just learned of George's accident and your loss.

My thoughts and prayers are with you during this sad time. I remember George fondly and think of him always with his good humour and smile, and have some happy memories during younger years too. Sending a photo "from younger years".

I will be having a Mass said for George in the near future.

Enclosed is a photo of George, Joe, and Pat Poulin "in younger years" holding their pet rabbits - taken in Trainer's front yard. As I recall they had a difficult time trying to keep the bunnies in the yard. Mine was wild, and did not make this photo op.

I hope to fly to Nelson this summer, cabin has been sold, but many good memories.

Sincerely,

Mimi Sturgeon

Condolences to all of the Trainors for their loss. Mr. Trainor was so much fun to be around for all of us kids, even when he kicked our butts at crib. Lots of laughs and many great memories of a wonderful man....

Tribute from Terri Nelson

Relation: Family friend

So many memories shared in the Trainor household. It was always such a warm inviting place to be in my teenage years and beyond and Mr. T with his calm presence and mischievous chuckle was a huge part of that. My warm thoughts and condolences are with you all. No doubt you will feel a great loss with the vacancy of the captain's chair but I know you will find comfort knowing he is at peace and he is smiling down on you!! For me....I will always think fondly of Mr. T every time I bite into a juicy piece of celery!!! :)

Much love,
Terri (Lindsey) Nelson

Tribute from Tracy Farrell MacRae

Relation: Family friend

Sincere condolences to the Trainor family. Growing up with Maryjean meant lots of wonderful times with the Trainor family. We were often hosted by Mr. & Mrs. Trainor for lunches, parties, sleepovers, and rides all over town in the big blue car. Without fail our encounters included lots of laughter and I'm sure we made it into their prayers a number of times (something like: Dear God, watch over those crazy girls!). I was lucky enough to hear Mr. Trainor's booming and wholehearted laugh just this past summer while visiting for our high school reunion. As MJ's friends we were always welcomed into the Trainor household...a place we loved to visit. As the founder and rock of the family, Mr Trainor will truly be missed, but his love of life, family, and friends carries on in the hearts of his many children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. I won't say "Rest in Peace", because I'm pretty sure he's up there cracking jokes with God and causing a ruckus! Lots of love Trainor Family. He was a gem and he was yours.

Relation: Friend

Dear Evelyn and family:

My Condolences on George's passing. George was a kind gentleman, who always had a smile or a one-line joke as a response to my inquiry.

He will be missed by his many friends in Nelson area and also at the "after Sunday morning church coffee group gatherings" with 10 - 12 friends meeting at various cafes and homes over the years.

Love and Prayers,

Josephine Bourgeois

My sincere condolences to the Trainor family. I will always cherish the times we went fishing to Wheeler lake, skating at Cottonwood or at our family get togethers. Mr. Trainor had an excellent sense of humour and nobody did the whistling hat dance better. He was a great man and will be deeply missed by all. I consider myself fortunate to have a person like him in my life. My thoughts and prayers are with all the Trainor family .

Tribute from Gord Corcoran

Relation: I worked with George at my water stations and had lots of laughs with him.
