Tribute from Peter Clement

Relation: Friend and neighbour

Hans was a deeply beautiful person, always had a kind word whenever we met. He was gracious and authentic, a real gentle-man.

He will be missed. May Flavia and his family find peace and comfort before long. May his soul rest in peace. May we all find inspiration in remembering Hans Elias.

Tribute from Amelie and Miles Thompson

Relation: friend from dancing

To Flavia and family, we offer our deepest condolences.

We are very sorry for your loss. Hans was a great man, generous and always smiling. I remember when he offered to help me with my German studies, before I went to Vienna. He gave me a book to learn German with cassette tapes. Also, he loaned me one of his childhood story books. I was touched by his generosity.

Of course, I will remember him as a great dance partner. I liked to dance polka, cha cha and waltz with Hans. I remember how we celebrated our April birthdays together with few other dancers at the Procter Hall. Hans took the time to help Miles to learn few dance moves too.

Again, we are sorry and thought our post card would have arrived earlier.

with love and compassion

Relation: Friend through Dance

Hans,

We think of you with great fondness. You and Flavia graced the dance floor so well and made us smile each time we saw you. You always had little tips to improve my style, always with the best of humour.

You were the epitome of being a gentleman and always made us feel welcome and comfortable. We will miss you. Our hearts are with you, Flavia, and the rest of your family.
