Tribute from Susan Erickson

Relation: friend

Irene was always full of curiosity and enjoyed engaging in lively conversation. I have read her book a couple of times and have started to read it again. She was very wise and humble and will be truly missed as an authentic Nelson character and source of joy. Rest in peace Irene.

Tribute from Serena Heller Crystal

Relation: She was my college friend.

I learned of Irene's passing today when I read my most recent Antioch College magazine and cried out in dismay to my husband, Roy Crystal. We were shocked to read her name. I found her obituary and learned she died on my birthday. We haven't seen Irene since our 1971 Antioch graduation, though we traveled with her mom in Mexico during my husband's Watson Travel Fellowship year. Irene will always blaze as a warm, loving, adventurous, very funny and delightful, ever curious person, sometimes perpetually and humorously perplexed by the perplexing universe even when we were young adults. How sad we are that we didn't keep in touch! She was a wonderful person when we knew her, living in the same house on Limestone Street in Yellow Springs, OH, our senior year, and it's clear she continued to grow and deepen, making her special mark on the world. She is deeply missed.
