Tribute from Lia MacRaid

Relation: Home Care Nurse, Long Term Care case manager and friend

It was such a pleasure to get to know John and Jack (John Jr) over the years. They always greeted me with smiles, hugs and friendly conversation. I was in awe of Johns beautiful garden and tried on many occasions to convince him to come to my house and tend My garden. Being the generous man that he was, he probably Would have if I had let him.

I'm very grateful for the time I had with John and for the ability to help him stay in his home until his last days. I imagine that he will be one of those people you meet in the journey of your career that you won't ever forget.

Sending much love to the family and especially to you Jack. You were a wonderful companion, friend and son to your Father. It was an honour to witness.
