The morning I received the news I was suddenly struck by how much Gil has given the world: to learn to love and give from of place of just being free to be yourself. Our condolences Ruth, to you and your daughters. Evidently, Gil and I are both from little northern hard rock mining towns. We'll trade stories some day in that big headframe in the sky.

Tribute from Roland Procter

Relation: Friends for 47 years

Gil, I am so saddened to learn of your passing. We first met in Riondel in 1973 and immediately connected and recognized each other as a true friend. Even though we did not hang out together every time we met the same warm and caring feelings were there. We will not meet in person again but your kind and open spirit will remain with me. Thank you for being my friend

Tribute from Lee Benard

Relation: Old Friend

So sorry to hear of Gil's passing. We were best of friend growing up as teenagers in Winnipeg and later in our early twenties in the Kootenays. We shared many lasting experiences through sports, school and girls and parties. Later in B.C we fell in love with the mountains and Kootenay lake and lucky Gil stayed and made a life there. I think I saw him last in the nineties when I visited my mom in Nelson. He was always laughing and enjoying life. I have so many great memories of our childhood that I am thinking about now and enjoying all over again. Rest easy old friend. You will be missed. Thanks for the memories.

Tribute from Petra Lehmann

Relation: I did not know him personally, but know Ruth, and Korina.

Dear Ruth, and family, I was saddened to hear of the loss of your husband and father. You did lose him too soon. I am so sorry for your loss. While I didn't know him personally, I admired his work ethic, and was grateful for the simple, nourishing and delicious food he created for Nelson diners.

To Ruth and the entire Langevin family especially Justine, Korina and Rachel:

We were so very sorry to hear of Gil's passing in the Nelson Star. He was a real light and such a positive contributor to our community - a veritable communitarian who worked hard and greeted us all with smiles and chuckles as he did! He will be dearly missed, and fondly remembered by so many of us here in town. He was taken from you much much too soon. No doubt his Spirit will always be right there when you need it; such is the power of those we love and then lose. Our sincere condolences, you are such a lovely family and our hearts are with you. Warmly, the Pearkes-Fernandez household (Ahna, Tim and Nevé)
