Tribute from Lynda Iwanik

Relation: Friend

A very sweet lady who contributed a lot to Nelson life. I can't remember how we met. She always had a smile and a hello for me. Rest In Peace Kathleen.

Tribute from Shirley Tennant

Relation: Acquaintance

Kathleen, you will be missed. We have known each other for many years. I think our mutual careers maybe drew us together. We both worked at the Nelson Daily News as did my late husband and your former husband if I am not mistaken. We had some good chats at the second hand store and at the thrift shop. We both had a love of the past. Rest In Peace. Condolences to your loved ones.

Tribute from Heather Jones

Relation: Online community

Kathleen was a part of an online community called The Moneyist - her progeny should join just to see the many kind things being said - she will be sorely missed there as well. I'm not sure how the poster found out she had left this world, but many are expressing sadness at her departure.

Tribute from Connie Trent

Relation: Online group The Moneyist.

I knew Kathleen from the online group the Moneyist. She was quite a vocal contributor. She will be missed. Deepest condolences to her family and friends.

Tribute from Jeff Bond

Relation: Through Facebook

I only knew Kathleen through a Facebook page that discussed finances. I could tell she was an honest, caring, and open person; also strong-willed while normally cheerful. I had recently missed her contributions to the website, but was unaware of her passing until someone else posted a link to her obituary. I'm sure she was a very, very cool mother, grandmother, and/or friend, and will be missed by many.

Tribute from Bonnie Whyte

Relation: Facebook's Moneyist

Kathleen's wit and advice is sorely missed on the Moneyist's FB page. She usually commented on my posts and I on hers, so I'm missing a dear friend. Keep her in your memories and know she is opining up there to one and all!
