Mrs. Ferraro has been a family friend since I was born and we always were welcomed with a smile and she never failed to ask how the family was doing anytime I saw her. Such a kind hearted, lovely lady that I will always remember with a smile. Our condolences to all the family...but it is comforting to know she is with her soul mate once again in heaven. may they rest in peace together again.

Dear Monty, Allison, and the rest of the Ferraro Families. My heart is heavy reading your Mom's obituary, she was truly a wonderful and inspirational woman, as was your Dad. The legacy she leaves behind, will no doubt, be as profound as the love of all who knew her.

Tribute from Mary Defeo

Relation: Family friend

I am very sorry to hear of your loss. Our family has so many wonderful memories of Mary, and my kids also have so many good "Mrs. Mary and Mr. Mel" stories. I loved reading this obituary- you grasped so much of her strength and determination, and also brought in the warmth and humour that we admired coming from the pink house next door. Much love.

Monte and Jack:

I just learned of your mom's passing away, and want to send you my heartfelt condolences. Both your mom and dad were full of warm smiles and animated greetings whenever I ran into them over the years. It was always a treat to see them.

For sure they lived full lives, but I know their being gone leaves big gaps nonetheless. I'll think of you.

Warm regards and condolences to Janice and Allison as well.

Tribute from Mathilde Klassen

Relation: A friend.

You know, more than anyone else, how wonderful a person your mother was, but I want to add my word to it all. I live in Lake View Village where your Mom and Dad lived for the last while. I did not know your Dad but I know it was difficult for your Mom when he passed away. It was always a pleasure to meet your Mom in the hallways or the elevator or at dinner. Always so pleasant and true to her self. We were friends though never lived as so-to-speak friends, which speaks for her friendliness and sincerity. Way back in years when we were both friends of Joey MacDonell, I knew then how kindly and helpful Mary was toward Joey. She helped her more than anyone knew. So, so kind she was, spreading the love of God/Jesus. She was so very pleasant! I loved her and I miss her very much around here. She is one who filled her life with love for others. Now, God has welcomed her in His love.

Tribute from Anne Massey

Relation: She was a neighbour and friend.

Dear Boni, Jack, and Monte,

I just recently heard the news of your Mother's passing. I had been thinking of her recently, having not been to Nelson for over a year, and wondering how she was doing. As a member of Fairview United Church, the Ferraro family was always a big presence for me.

Whenever I would come back to Nelson, I made it a priority to visit Mel and Mary because they always were so welcoming and happy to see me. I remember when Mary was working on her degree and I was amazed at how hard she worked and how important it was to her.

She was so proud of all her children and proudly shared news of each of you when I visited.

I learned about fresh asparagus by having some from her garden. Before that, I knew asparagus as only as the yellow green stuff that came out of a can. What a wonderful discovery!

It was very hard for her to move from her house to Lakeview Village when Mel had his stroke, but she soldiered on. I will always remember her fondly and my thoughts are with you and all your families at this time.

Tribute from Brenda McCormick

Sending condolences to Mary's family. Mary was one of the kindest people. When I met her from time to time she always put a smile on my face with her beautiful caring way. I picture her and Mel sitting side by side smiling away.
