

REMEMBERING
Phillip Parisi

July 1, 2017

To all family and friends, as many of you know, Phillip was an honorable, kind, generous and special person. He was a nurturing, loving father to his daughter Snow, who we will all love and cherish. He was an adventurer, a person you could trust to be there. He has many friends and family that love him and will always remember him as the sweet soul that he was.

Thank you all for your kind words. May Phillip forever stay with us in our hearts and thoughts.

xoma

