Tribute from Lois Arnesen

Relation: casual friend

Dear Family of Ray, My husband went through UBC law school with Ray so we have known him a long time. Once when they had moved to Nelson, I met a daughter in Safeway. I admired Ray's career as a judge. Recently, I saw Ray in the hospital and had a visit, he certainly was lucid. Please accept my sympathy and condolences. Lois Arnesen

Tribute from Michael Kew

Relation: Legal Community

I began practicing Law in the West Kootenay in 1981, about the time that Judge Cooper was appointed to the bench. I did many trials in front of him and I now recognize the immense patience and kindness he showed a young lawyer just learning his trade. Since his retirement I have only bumped in to him a few times but he was always warm and welcoming: a true gentleman. He will be missed. Kind regards and sympathy. - Michael

Tribute from Doug and Bernadette McMullin

Relation: I worked with Judge Cooper

Our condolences go out to all of you. I was Judge Coopers' steno in the Nelson Court House and worked closely with him. He was such a patient man, and always had that mischievous smile that greeted us every day. After his retirement we had many short visits with His Honour and Mrs. Cooper over at the golf course or in the local grocery store. He was such a warm, loving, distinguished person and I will always look back at my "Court House" days with very fond memories. Take care. Doug and Bernadette McMullin

Tribute from Grant Cooper

Relation: Nephew

Cooper family,

My condolences on the passing of Uncle Ray. I regret that I was not able to make it to the funeral. We are grateful to Alan for keeping us advised of Uncle Ray's condition and the family plans. I will always remember how excited my dad (Ron) got when Ray and the family were coming to visit. Ray was one of his favourite people.
