Tribute from Arlene McMillin

Relation: valley friend and neighbour

Ray a man who engaged in life in so many ways
he will certainly be missed so many adventures...so many people to connect with sympathies to his wife and family kindest thoughts at this time of transition Arlene

Tribute from Debra Storey

Relation: Through my parents

So sorry to hear about Ray's passing. Our community has lost a pioneer who has contributed greatly to our community. My parents, Max and Mary Carne, knew Ray very well. I always enjoyed visiting with Ray and hearing his stories. So much knowledge to pass along. Hugs to all the family.

Tribute from Art Joyce

Relation: Friend

Ray was such a vital, intelligent important member of the community. From the moment I interviewed him for my history of Nelson transit, I was impressed with him. His memories of driving Nelson City bus were vivid and he was much loved by his riders. It's hard to imagine a man of such vitality being gone. Blessings to the family.

Tribute from Joyce Tucker.

Relation: He drove my children's school bus to and from Brent Kennedy Elementary.

I still have wooden nickels given by Ray to my sons, when Ray was their school bus driver in Crescent Valley..He was always so good with the kids, especially the young ones. He will always be a happy part of their Brent Kennedy memories. Thanks for the memories Ray....
Condolences to Ray's family...

Tribute from Hendrix family

Relation: Family friend

We were sad to hear of Ray's passing. We always enjoyed visiting and listening to his stories. With him goes a keeper of Valley history. Condolences to his family.

Tribute from Jeanne / John Webster

Relation: Ray's wife, Eileen, is my father's sister

We hold to, and forward our sincere condolences, with the passing of Ray. We understand he was a kind thoughtful person, a reassuring inspiration to everyone he interacted with, and, we are sorry that there weren't more opportunities to share time with him, to better acquaint with his lifetime attributes and accomplishments.
