Tribute from Bernie and Larry ZiegenhagelBerniezieg and family

Relation: Family friend

Many great memories with Rod camping at the Arrow Lakes. We would spend time with him and his family-golfing, playing bocci, playing games and just enjoying the peace and quiet while camping. He also loved having us dropped in for happy hour when we were in the Nelson area. We will miss visiting with him and Joan, it just won't be the same going to Kootenay Lake without them there.

Tribute from Judy Yawney

Relation: Friend

I always knew where to find dad at 10 AM..He would be having coffee with Rod and Joan at Wrights Meat Market. Ah, the incredible sausages they made! And the marvelous story of the Sheep Creek Trout caught in January or the ones they caught in the Slocan in February! And yes, "Happy Hour"! Rod always knew who I was when I called! Thank you Rod and Joan for the warm welcomes.

Tribute from Carol & Jim Albo

Relation: acquaintance

Sending sincerest sympathy to Claire, Carol and family, on the death of your dear father. Your parents had such friendly personalities and left many fine memories. We are thinking of you.
