We were so sorry to hear of the loss of Sonja but inspired by the amazing obituary which profiled her amazing life. We remember her well from so many places, and loved to go into Sonja's China Cabinet. How lovely that she was able to spend her final days in her own home, so fitting for one that made family such a tremendous focus. RIP, Mrs. Freno

Hello Freno family; I'm so sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. Our Mom's spent many hours together as two of Baker Street's strongest business women-mine in the jewellery business. When I was married in 1984 I of course had my name in the bridal registry at Sonja's. Both our Moms taught me the importance of fine and beautiful things. Our Moms are sharing a glass of wine in Heaven now. Most likely reminiscing about the old days as Baker St. merchants...the good old days....

So sorry to hear of your loss. I recall going into her store in Nelson and having Sonja help with picking a gift for my late mother Mary. Sonja had an unmatched energy for life. She will be missed.

Tribute from Brian and Sylvia May

We are sorry to hear of Sonja's passing. Our condolences to the whole family. Over 30 years ago we were a new face in town and unsure of our commitment but we soon met Sonja at her shop. Her welcome, her smile, and her advice soon made us feel at home and over the years we always enjoyed sharing a moment. She will be missed.
