Tribute from katy brooks

Relation: he was my great uncle to all of the family, i would first and for most like to send all my love and prayers to all of you at this difficult time. uncle webb was such a great man, i have many wonderful memories with him starting as a young child at my grandparents house ( webb's brother sandy and wife yvonne) exploring through the woods on their 7 acre property... there was always lots to explore! but my last memories with uncle webb were in 2006 visiting new denver to celebrate his 80th birthday, i remember sitting in his very cozy house remenissing about my grandfather(sandy) and all the memories they shared growing up, it was a time that i will never forget and a memory i will cherish in my heart forever.

webb was such a wonderful reminder to me of my grandfather, they were like two pea's in a pod really... only uncle webb wasn't as quiet as sandy was. i will miss you uncle webb may you rest in peace.

Tribute from Victoria Freeman

Relation: niece

Thanks to my cousins for the livestreaming of the celebration of Webb's life. Both Mark and I watched it and were so glad to be present, even at a distance. The speakers certainly captured the essence of the Webb we and so many others knew and loved. He will be greatly missed. The photo is from the summer of 1983.

Tribute from Bill, Vanessa, Kyra Low and Steve Grubb

Relation: Webb was an "in-law" and a friend

The service over the internet at 4AM this morning was a pleasant reminder of Webb's memorable visit to see us in Alice Springs in the late 90s. The evening waterhole and getting bogged at King's Canyon, flight to Tanami Mine, Mereenie Gasfield, Palm Valley all had special moments and memories. Best wishes to family, Webb's physical presence may be gone but his memories will be personally and jointly part of you. Love to all.
